NUNTIATA

Mark 12: 28-31

And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, "Which commandment is the most important of all?" Jesus answered, "The most important is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

Missionary Opportunities at Christian Classical Schools in Africa

The Rafiki Foundation, a Christian mission agency serving in 10 countries in Africa, has opportunities for Christian classical teachers to serve as missionaries for short or long term service.

It is looking for new or experienced teachers to teach in its Christian, classical schools (K–12) that are serving orphans and vulnerable children in Africa. Not only is Rafiki operating 10 K–12 schools but God is also opening the doors for Rafiki to train headmasters from hundreds of church schools in Africa to set up Christian classical schools. Come be a part of expanding this vision overseas by teaching in one of our schools. For more information, please see the attached flyer, access Rafiki's website: www.rafikifoundation.org, or visit us on Facebook. For an application, please contact Susy Harbick at susyh@rafikifoundation.org.

ERB Testing Materials

Legacy Classical Christian Academy (Phoenix, AZ) has closed. They have ERB testing materials that they would like to pass to another ACCS school that uses the ERB. For more information, contact Sheri Groves at az1grove@msn.com.
